

How To Solve Divorce Problems In California: --- In Or Out Of Court! A Guide For Petitioners And Res

An overview of the

CALIFORNIA COURT PROCESS FOR DIVORCE

STEP 1	INITIAL PROCESS QUESTIONS The person initiating the case (the Petitioner) determines whether they seek divorce or legal separation, where to file and any special filing procedures for their county.
STEP 2	DETERMINE LEVEL OF AGREEMENT Petitioner talks with his or her spouse or domestic partner (the Respondent) and enlists professional resources, if desired, to work out an agreement about the terms of their divorce or legal separation.
STEP 3	PETITIONER COMPLETES FORMS Petitioner obtains all required forms and completes them. These forms can be found on your county's courthouse website, at most courthouses and in public or county law libraries.
STEP 4	PETITIONER FILES FORMS Petitioner must deliver all completed and required forms to the courthouse and pay a filing fee. As of 2017, the current filing fee for the Petitioner in most counties is $435. A filing fee waiver can be applied for in certain cases.
STEP 5	SERVICE OF PROCESS TO RESPONDENT A person over 18 years of age and not involved in the case provides the Respondent with copies of the filed forms and Petitioner provides the court with a form called a "proof of service" to prove it was completed correctly.
STEP 6	RESPONDENT CHOOSES WHETHER TO RESPOND Respondent must decide if he/she will file a response within 30 days. If he or she does not, the judge can determine whether to dissolve the marriage or domestic partnership without hearing the Respondent's input via forms.
STEP 7	RESPONDENT FILES RESPONSE & FORMS Respondent obtains and completes required forms and files them with the court and pays a filing fee. The filing fee is currently the same for Petitioner and Respondent. A filing fee waiver can be obtained in certain cases.
STEP 8	SERVICE OF PROCESS TO PETITIONER A person over 18 years of age and not involved in the case provides the Petitioner with copies of the response and Respondent provides the court with a form called a "proof of service" to prove it was completed correctly.
STEP 9	DECLARATION OF DISCLOSURE Petitioner and Respondent exchange financial documents that show what they own and owe to identify marital or community and separate assets and liabilities which will help the parties determine division.
STEP 10	COURT APPROVAL OF JUDGMENT To become divorced or legally separated, the court must approve and sign a judgment. The process depends on whether the Respondent files a response and whether agreement can be reached between the parties whether the case goes in front of a judge. This includes agreement between the parties on all financial, custodial and spousal/partner support issues, etc.

	PROCESS TIMELINE - You cannot legally end your marital status until at least 6 months (180 days) after the case is filed and the Respondent has been served. - This timeline is heavily dependent upon the cooperation and level of agreement between the parties involved. - Using professional resources can help to improve and facilitate agreement on any hearing. - Per Lawyers.com, the average duration of a California divorce is approximately 12 months, but can range from eight to 20 months.

	AVERAGE COST OF DIVORCE IN CALIFORNIA - Per Lawyers.com, the average cost of a divorce in California is approximately $17,500, but typically ranges between $5,500 and $38,000. - The cost is heavily dependent upon the number of issues requiring agreement, for example, custody issues and the complexity of the couple's financial situation.
